

Sweet Harmony, a piano/violin or piano/viola duo, provides classical and jazz music for weddings, parties, corporate functions, and festive events. We offer music with real feeling and a highly professional sound as well as quality personal attention. We have over 30 years of experience playing for special events and restaurants. We also draw on our several years of managing a professional string quartet to make sure it all goes smoothly.

With us you will receive a high level of personalized service as well as a very high quality performance. You can feel safe trusting the music of your wedding or special event to us, knowing that your specific needs and vision will be understood and realized!

We also have a network of very fine musicians to provide a variety of instrumentation. Contact us for a string quartet or trio, or if you wish to add a trumpet player, French horn, or vocalist. We are also available for Irish or Italian cultural gatherings, with a repertoire of fast jigs, beautiful ballads, and fun sing-along songs. Whether your event is formal, serious, light-hearted, loose, foot-stomping, or somewhere in between, Sweet Harmony has the great sound and service you need to make it a success!
